Rivers on Island of Ambrim Flow With Burning Lava. Air Filled With Steam and Cinders

(By Associated Press.)
YAGAKI, Japan, Jan. 12.—Indications are that the death list from the earthquake and volcanic disturbances around Kagoshima will run into the thousands. Government authorities declare that the disaster will be impossible to estimate.

The population of the city of Kagoshima, which is almost completely buried in volcanic ash and stones, was 100,000 at the last census. The population of the adjoining island of Sakurajima, center of the disturbance, is given as 10,000. On this island hundreds are reported to have perished beneath the clouds of the molten lava from the crater of Sakurajima. Many more are undoubtedly drowned attempting to escape from the island.

Doctors and hospital attendants have been sent to the scene, but it is difficult to reach the spot, as the lava has been driven in by the heat of the lava and the lava has been driven in by the heat of the lava.

The violence of the eruption of Sakurajima is so great that showers of ash are falling here, although the distance between Kagoshima and the island of Sakurajima is about ninety miles.

A refugee who arrived here, today from Kagoshima, gave a description of the disaster.

The eruption started suddenly, with clouds of thick black smoke and flame from the crater of Sakurajima. The clouds of the inhabitants of the small island in the Gulf of Kagoshima, where the eruption is situated, rushed to the shore and leaped on board junks and sampans, and many of them were killed.

Salesman Drinks Poison, But Hard Work Saves Life

J. R. Huff Is Rushed to Hospital After Taking Laudanum—Is Out of Danger

In the act of dictating a letter to a public stenographer in the Fourth National Bank building at noon Tuesday, J. R. Huff, a salesman who lives in College Park, took a bottle of laudanum to his lips and swallowed the contents.

If an enemy were to think well of me, he would say that I am a hard worker, Huff said, clearly and distinctly, as he lay in the hospital.

The stenographer, Miss Maggie Childers, sitting at the typewriter, screamed and tried to knock the bottle from his hand. Huff already had swallowed its contents, however, and before she and a man in the room could intervene he sank into his chair, rapidly becoming unconscious.

Miss Childers called the Grady hospital ambulance. The quick application of iodine and a stomach pump drained the laudanum from his system.

Mr. Huff was rushed there in an ambulance. The quick application of iodine and a stomach pump drained the laudanum from his system.

ATLANTA IS RAPIDLY TRAVELING TO FRONT IN BANK CLEARINGS

Now Takes Rank Ahead of Louisville and Is Second Only to New Orleans in the South

INCREASE OF $34,000,000 IS SHOWN FOR THE YEAR

Savings of 18.9 per Cent Shown for December Against 4.5 per Cent by the Louisiana City

Atlanta's rapid growth as a financial center is shown by the yearly summary of bank clearings published by the Commercial and Financial Chronicle of Tuesday, Jan. 13, which reached Atlanta by Tuesday's mail.

This publication shows that in bank clearings Atlanta has secured its place second in the southern states, being ahead of Louisville and standing second only to New Orleans.

In December clearing, Atlanta made a new record, having increased from $1,000,000 in December, 1912, to $1,340,000 in December, 1913.

It is worthy of note that Macomb's clearing in December, 1913, was $1,000,000, which is the same as the clearing of Louisville in December, 1912.

Dr. Shaw Gives Reason For Not Paying Taxes; No Militant, She Says

(By Associated Press.)
PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 12.—Declaring many statements published in connection with her refusal to pay taxes in raising the value of her property were erroneous, Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, president of the National American Woman Suffrage association, issued a statement last night in which she explained her attitude toward taxation and "militancy," of which she has been charged without any foundation whatever.

"There was nothing in my statement that could have been construed as a refusal to pay my taxes," said Dr. Shaw. "Neither was there any thought of militancy in my refusal to fill out a list of particulars of my personal property for purposes of taxation. I have always paid my taxes but have without protesting against the manner and injustice of it. I will do again but I refused to aid the government to impose a personal tax by making out a specific bill of my property to be taxed. It is to be understood that I am not a militant."

"The law upon this subject is clear and though unjust, it states that if a person refuses to fill out the bill the government will do so. In declining, I refused to aid but I stated a principle. If there is any militancy involved it is the militancy of the government, not mine."

Engineer Wins Race And Then Drops Dead Gripping His Throttle

(By Associated Press.)
SEATTLE, Wash., Jan. 12.—While driving his locomotive fifty-five miles an hour yesterday George H. Perry, engineer of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul's fast overland train, the Olympian, dropped dead of heart disease at his throttle.

Death occurred soon after Perry had won a race against a train on a rival road which parallels the St. Paul tracks near Easton, just before the road began to climb the steep grade up the east slope of the Cascade mountains.

After Perry's train had passed its rival and had gone through Easton at full speed, the fireman saw the engine was dead. He drove the train to Laconia, on the west slope of the range, where another engineer took charge.

FURTHER BREAK IN RANKS OF STRIKERS EXPECTED

Cold Weather, Disheartens the Leaders—Militia Leaves Strike Zone
(By Associated Press.)
HOUGHTON, Mich., Jan. 12.—State troops did not patrol the copper strike zone today. The last company of militia left the district yesterday. It was the first time since last July that the strike territory has been without the militia.

Because of cold weather, fresh evictions and a reported further break in the ranks of the union men, strike leaders were somewhat disheartened today.

Union stores throughout the district were crowded again today and numerous requests were made for increased food and fuel supplies. Calls on charity workers continued to increase.

RENEWED BULL SPOT CAUSED RISE IN COTTON

Market in New York Closed 6 to 12 Points Higher Than Previous Close

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—There was a renewal of bulling speculation at the opening of the cotton market today and some selling also. The market was quiet until about 10 o'clock, when the market began to move. The price of the market rose to 12 points higher than the previous close.

The reports of a better demand for raw cotton in the United States and some foreign buying also helped to move the market. The price of the market rose to 12 points higher than the previous close.

COUNTY POLITICS OPEN UP

WATERS AGAIN TO SEEK PLACE ON COUNTY BOARDChairman Announces He Will Ask Re-election From Country District

Pull C. Waters, present chairman of the board of Fulton county commissioners, whose term of office expires at the end of this year, has announced he will be a candidate for re-election at the coming primary.

Commissioner Waters declares he is going to stand for the election from the country district. Four members of the county board are elected from the county at large and one member is elected from the country district.

Steady Smith is at present the commissioner from the country, and his term expires with that of Mr. Waters. Mr. Smith has made no announcement, but Waters has declared flatly and finally that he will stand from the country district.

"Four years ago," said Waters, "I was logically the man to run from the country district, but was persuaded not to make the point and so I ran from the county at large. This time, however, I am going to stand flatly as a candidate from the country district."

Mr. Smith and probably several others are expected to run for the two vacancies on the county commission at the coming primary, and it will be up to the various candidates, in a way, to pick their opponents.

SILENT ABOUT BOARD.

Although in making his statement Mr. Waters said nothing about the affairs of the county board his announcement for re-election almost immediately followed the action of the majority of the board, Smith, K. E. Tamm and T. Winn, in denouncing Thomas J. Donaldson, superintendent of public works, and resigning the whole department over the strenuous opposition of Commissioners Waters and Anderson.

The denunciation of Captain Donaldson has caused future in the county administration not equalled before in years. Many of the minor details of the reorganization must be worked out by the public works committee, of which Waters, Anderson and Winn, a majority favorable to Donaldson, are members. Unless they find some way to in a measure return the official's shore power, it is said his resignation is probable.

The public works committee, which meets next Saturday, is expected to advise the action of board Monday, and it is possible the board's majority, Waters and Anderson, may take the whole matter to the county.

The bookkeeper of the public works department, Major Lynne, was indicted of his job and the action became effective January 1. It is said that he has been working for twelve days of this year. Whether he can be paid for the twelve days is a question which has not been decided and this may be the basis for some action by the minority, which was taken by surprise by the suddenness of the motion to reorganize the department.

Asks Respite for Negro

Attorney J. B. Copeland, of Valdosta, appeared to Governor Slaton Monday for a respite for George Smith, a negro under sentence, to be hanged on Friday for the murder of another negro named Benjamin.

In the event the prison commission recommends a respite, the governor will probably grant one.

This is George, the "Black Hope" from Zebulon. The other man is J. H. Bell, no midget himself, but a flea beside George.

Giant Black From Pike County Can't Get in Door Unless He Takes Off Shoes and Crawls

When George Bell alighted from the train at the Terminal station Monday afternoon and wended his way Five Pointsward his path of progress was attended by much pushing and crowding, many cringes of necks and frequent exclamations denoting surprise.

But a little thing like a crowd doesn't worry George. Being only eight feet tall, tipping the scales at a trifling 350 pounds, ranging 3-feet-1 from one finger tip to the other and wearing a size 23 shoe, it is only to be expected that his appearance would excite some comment. Add to that the fact that he is an black as the pit, and you see why the people turn and look.

Not that they do down in Pike county. George is an old citizen there, being brought into this world at Zebulon, Ga., just twenty-two years ago. His father is just five feet two, his mother five feet eight, and his brothers and sisters can get into a house without knocking a few shingles off the roof.

George is the ex-lord of Ringling Bros. circus, and is in Atlanta for the purpose of exhibiting his Hirculean charms at a freak show at 40 Marietta street.

When George came down Forsyth street three women almost fell out of the sixth story of the Austell building with surprise, and a man rushed out of a barbershop with half his face lathered and half shaved.

"What makes you so big, George?" he asked the giant.

"Law, boss, I dunno," grinned George. "Whut's eat?"

"Just what other folks eat. But Ah drunk a right smart 'n good liquor, too," said George, smiling.

Cheap and Easily Made, But Ends a Cough Quickly

How to Make the Very Best Cough Remedy at Home.

This pint of cough syrup is easily made at home and saves you about $2.00 compared with ordinary cough remedies. It relieves obstinate coughs—even whooping cough—quickly, and is splendid, too, for bronchial asthma, spasmodic croup and hoarseness.

Mix one pint of granulated sugar with 1/2 pint of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (fifty cents worth) in a pint bottle, and add the Sugar Syrup. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours. Tastes Good.

This takes right hold of a cough and gives almost instant relief. It stimulates the appetite, and is slightly laxative—both excellent features. Pinex, as perhaps you know, is a most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, rich in quinine and the other natural healing pine elements.

No other preparation will do the work of Pinex in this mixture, although strained honey can be used instead of the sugar syrup, if desired.

Thousands of households in the United States and Canada now use this Pinex and Sugar Syrup remedy. This plan has often been imitated, but the old successful combination has never been equalled. Its low cost and quick results have made it immensely popular.

A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

250 Women's Suits Will Hurry Out Tomorrow Impelled by This Lowest Price of the Season

$15.00

Regular $25 to $65 Suits

A Sale Without a Counterpart

We believe women needing suits will consider this the most important event we have ever invited them to share.

Its wonderful attractiveness is in the Facts and Figures presented—eloquent of opportunity for saving.

The Stated Value of the Suits Will Bear the Closest Scrutiny

It is a sale different from any we have ever held. The suits are all thoroughly desirable, and the prices lower than the word "Sale" usually means.

We love to give great values as much as you love to get them. It is a part of our duty to you to sell goods as low as we can and to quote special prices whenever possible.

But it is our greater duty to see to it that neither we nor you shall be tempted by a low price to buy anything that isn't worth having.

The true measure of a "bargain" is quality—not price. It's what you get—not what you pay—that counts.

Judge this sale accordingly when we say it is one of the greatest opportunities we have ever offered you.

Some of the suits in this clearing are the most beautiful models of the season—splendid, exclusive styles; distinguished in the highest degree.

There is hardly a limit to materials represented in these suits. And almost every color-tone that Fashion has approved.

The opportunity for buying suits of such elegance and good style is rarely—if ever—presented, and there are not many who will want to miss it.

There are two hundred and fifty suits in the sale, which will be a quick one—a Record Breaker—as easily foretold in this unusually low pricing—

WOMAN REFUSES OPERATION

Tells How She Was Saved by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Logansport, Ind.—"My baby was over a year old and I bloated till I was over a burden to myself. I suffered from female trouble so I could not stand on my feet and I felt like millions of needles were pricking me all over. At last my doctor told me that all that would save me was an operation, but this I refused. I told my husband to get me a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I would try it before I would submit to any operation. He did and I improved right along. I am now doing all my work and feeling fine.

"I hope other suffering women will try your Compound. I will recommend it to all I know."—Mrs. DANIEL D. B. DAVIS, 110 Franklin St., Logansport, Ind.

Since we guarantee that all testimonials which we publish are genuine, it is not fair to suppose that if Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has the virtue to help these women it will help any other woman who is suffering in a like manner?

If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (Confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Bishop Candler Will Be Invited to Preside Over Church Extension Rally

"Broadway Jones" Funny; Sophie Tucker, a Scream

Norman Hackett in "The Witching Hour" Adds to His Popularity With Lyric Audiences

"Broadway Jones" tickled a good-sized audience at the Atlanta Monday night, until several individuals nearly threw a fit. In the cold gray dawn of the morning after one fails to remember anything unimportantly funny in the play, but it must have been there—unless Thomas V. Henry and his accomplices had everybody hypnotized. It's a Cuban show of the typical Cuban type. You know his stuff—mixture of bright lights and all-night comedies with rural types rather overdrawn, and every now and then a tribute to the stealing worth of small town folk in spite of the fact we've been probing at them all the evening. Cuban was always strong on the home and other stuff—and he's worth several million now.

The play is one of those thoroughly comic dramas in which everything breaks right from the jump. The hero goes broke before the curtain rises, tells his troubles to the inevitable best friend, and commences to get rich again at once. His rich old uncle dies in the nick of time, leaving young Jones a chewing gum factory which the trust desires to buy for a million and a half. And Broadway refuses it, saves the town folk and marries the girl.

The company is amply able to put the lines over and get the laughs at the proper intervals. It is true that Mr. Henry resembles a village cut-up rather more than a sport who has spent a quarter-million in the lobster palaces, and Mr. Benton, as Friend Wallace, has the appearance and manner of a justice court bailiff while supposed to be a New York business man who mixes in society. It is also true that the girl who runs the chewing gum plant, does up her hair just as the new February magazines indicate and waits with the very latest creepy crouch. But these are small matters. "Broadway Jones" is funny enough for anybody's evening. If you've been trying in vain for a laugh since the New Year's began to rain in, go to the Cuban show and try again. It will be here two more nights and a nuttine.

DELLAY GLASS. If we were playing the game along tight for fat lines it would be eminently fitting to roast the Forsyth today, inasmuch as the Forsyth roasted us last night. But we can't. It's too good a show.

You see, Hugh Cardozo, gave us a seat right over a young furnace Monday night and then turned on the heat full blast. It was intensely painful and Sophie Tucker thought we were waiting to hear every time we uttered a handkerchief across our perspiring brow.

We were so occupied with the burning issue we hardly had time to enjoy Sophie's "Easy Rider" songs or laugh at James Cullen's whimsical or wonder at the "Awakening of the Toys" or be thrilled by "The Cop." But it's one hot show and you will enjoy it.

Take Miss Tucker for instance. She reaches right over the head of the bald-headed man in row one and grabs that audience for her very own. She sings to one, talks to 'em, almost shakes hands with 'em and pats them on the back and the one who seems to enjoy it all more than anybody else is Sophie Tucker.

"All right, Frank," she says, "put on Easy Rider" and on it goes and Miss Tucker swings into it with the spirit of a two-year-old and the gallery goes crazy and the pit just has to applaud like anything.

Miss Tucker is easily the bull's-eye of the bill. If you like serious stuff, with a thrill and a laugh and a pleasant taste all packed away in it, there's "The Cop," a one-act drama in which O'Reilly proves that all blue coats do good. The Italian shows himself a man and the inspector that he could graft if he wanted to, but much prefers to fool O'Reilly and promote him to a sergeant's place.

James Cullen has some witty songs and sayings, a few of 'em old but most of 'em new, that are so bright you don't have time to laugh in the hurry of keeping awake.

"The Awakening of the Toys" is one last number that keeps the audience in place. The wonderful play doll mechanical effect is a most horrible and delightful creature. It's worth the while just to get one shudder out of it.

Harry Richards and Ben Kyle put a clever comedy skit called "A Regular Club Fellow." Monroe Atkins and Jole Axtell are back again with their "Traveling" act, always laughable, and the bill opens with Van Cleve, Denton and "Pete," a trick donkey.

Norman Hackett, in the portrayal of Jack Brookfield, the central figure around which the action of "The Witching Hour" revolves, demonstrated at the Lyric last night that his success was not confined solely to acting the romantic, swashbuckling roles which have made him famous.

Mr. Hackett's rendition of the part, that of a gambler, who, during the action of the play, reforms and becomes a powerful factor for good, was forceful and impressive. "The Witching Hour" is one of Augustus Thomas' most noted successes, but it is a play which most decidedly requires excellent acting properly to present. With a less capable company than that which supports Mr. Hackett, failure would have been certain. As it is, all of the members of the company showed careful preparation for their parts, and gave Mr. Hackett excellent support.

Mr. Burton Robbins, in the role of Justice Prentiss, was frequently applauded. Miss Ila-Marie Dehl portrayed her part well. The others in the cast were very good, especially Edwin Vail, as Frank Hardmath.

The stage settings and scenery in "The Witching Hour" are especially fine.

M. L. BRITTAIN WILL BE HOST TO THE TEN CLUB

At the regular meeting of The Ten club, to be held Tuesday evening at the home of M. L. Brittain, on West Peachtree street, the probabilities of a visit from Dr. Edwin Alms, professor of English at the University of North Carolina, and Dr. Harry White, of Athens, will be discussed.

Before the meeting the members will be treated to a bird supper by Prof. Brittain. The program will then consist of a discussion of "The Tempest," and Mr. Harry White, of Athens, will be discussed.

(By Associated Press.)

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Jan. 12.—His skull crushed and cut in sixteen places, George Orr, of Tunkhannock, died last night while being removed to a hospital here following a quarrel in a railroad section man's shanty near Richettsville, Pa.
